CERES, CALIFORNIA

Foreword

This yearbook is, to us, a diary of Ceres High School 1966-67. It is a record of our activities throughout the past school year. A picture book of events--our yearbook is a book of fond memories.

A yearbook is something to keep in a safe place and take down to look at as the years pass.

We will leave Ceres High, but through our yearbook we will always be a part of it.

DEDICATION

We, of the 1966-67 CEREAL, take pride in dedicating this annual to Mr. Robert Messer, our advisor.

For the last four years Mr. Messer has been the CEREAL advisor. In return for our carelessness and forgetfulness he has given patience and guidance. When we were discouraged he was the one to give us the spark of determination to finish our job.

We will always remember Mr. Messer as a teacher of great integrity and responsibility.

Pig-
I'm so glad that we became good, good friends. I really love talking to you. Although, it seems that since Van and I broke up you haven't been liking me as well. Maybe it's all my imagination but it does seem like we're not as close as we used to be. Your a great person and so is your little husband. I wish he could be here with you. I know how much you miss him but he'll be home soon. Be good and try and call me more often.
Lots of love,

Jim talks with coach

On our line we had a group of boys who were willing to give all they could, both in practice and in the game. Our line was smaller than almost every line we faced this year. But what they lack in size they made up for in aggressiveness. To name a few of our outstanding linemen throughout the year I would name seniors Loftin and Harden, Juniors Toste, Wester, Sinclear and Houston.

Our backs were the lightest in the league. They overcame this factor by aggressiveness and willingness to ba a part of the game. Time after time they were tackled fiercely but bounced back.

The offensive play of Collins, McBride, Giddens, Volk and Anderson was a marvel to watch at times. The defensive play of Shannon, Mullins, Anderson, and Giddens was discouraging to most of our opponents.

The 1966 Frosh-Soph Football Team captured the Mountain Valley League Championship. Their season record was 8 wins and only 1 loss. The team was lead by the passing of Rex Holm to end Pat Lucas. This pair clicked for 12 TD's. Rounding out the attack were running backs Bill White and Kerry Machado. On defense, freshman halfback Kevin Stewart led the team in tackles and Jack Wright picked off 7.
